COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff James Cowen (“James Cowen”), resides in the Town of Mendon, Worcester County, Massachusetts.
2. Plaintiff John Cowen, Jr., (“John Cowen”) resides in the Town of Hopedale, Worcester County, Massachusetts.
3. Plaintiff Luke Cowen, (“Luke Cowen”) resides in the Town of Hopedale, Worcester County, Massachusetts.
4. Defendant Marco Lima (“Lima”), resides in the Town of Hopedale, Worcester County, Massachusetts.
5. Defendant Craig Landry (“Landry”), resides in the Town of Uxbridge, Worcester County, Massachusetts.

FACTS

6. Each of the previous paragraphs in incorporated in this section as if fully set forth herein.
7. At all times pertinent hereto Lima and Landry each acted as set forth herein in his capacity as a sworn police officer of the Town of Hopedale Police Department pursuant to the statutes, ordinances, and regulations of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the ordinances and regulations of the Town of Hopedale.
8. On November 26, 2015, Lima and Landry responded to 17-19 Peace Street, Hopedale, Massachusetts, as a result of a reported loud domestic disturbance at that location, where the plaintiffs and numerous members of their extended families had gathered at the homes of John Cowen and of Janice Cowen – the mother of John and James – to celebrate Thanksgiving.

9. On arrival at the location John Cowen and other family members met Lima and Landry in front of the residences; the disturbance had ceased, there no violent action taking place and no reasonably perceptible threat of violence or of harm to any person.
10. John Cowen explained to the officers that he and Luke Cowen, his son, had gotten into a heated verbal altercation, that had ended and that Luke Cowen was then in the John Cowen home.
11. No one present with the officers was injured, nor was there any report to them of injury or of any request for medical assistance.
12. No sounds of tumult, violence, threats, or commotion of any kind emanated from either the Janice Cowen Home, the John Cowen home or from the adjacent grounds.
13. At that time and place Lima claimed he had to see Luke Cowen and that to do so he must enter John Cowen's residence, and he moved toward the porch leading the residence door as John Cowen objected and peacefully tried to dissuade the officer from entering his home.
14. At no time did Lima ask John Cowen to summon Luke Cowen outside the home.
15. On information and belief at that time Lima had decided to arrest Luke Cowen, notwithstanding that there was no probable cause to do so.
16. As John Cowen moved toward the door of his home alongside Lima while peacefully remonstrating with him not to enter the home, Lima used excessive and unnecessary force against him when without cause or legal excuse he assaulted and battered John Cowen by shoving him forcefully so that he fell to the ground.
17. Immediately thereafter, at that location Landry used excessive and unnecessary force against John Cowen when without cause or legal excuse he assaulted and battered John Cowen with an electronic shocking device or Taser and arrested him.
18. At the same time and place, when James Cowen exited the porch and approached peacefully while verbally questionin Lima's use of force against John Cowen, Lima assaulted, tackled, battered, and injured James Cowen without legal cause or excuse when he grabbed Cowen by the right upper right arm with sufficient force to cause extensive bruising, seized him by the neck, forced him to the ground and kneed him in the back and injuring him in the back and the right arm.
19. At no pertinent time was there any reasonably perceptible danger of any harm to any person by James Cowen or John Cowen such as would justify Lima and Landry's uses of force against either of them.

20. Lima falsely claimed James Cowen had grabbed him to justify his use of force against James.
21. Lima and Landry both falsely reported that prior to getting shoved by Lima John Cowen acted in a menacing manner toward Lima.
22. Landry falsely claimed that John Cowen lunged at and collided with Lima's back as Lima was taking James Cowen to the ground just before Landry tazed John Cowen and handcuffed him.
23. Lima, by falsely claiming that James Cowen had physically assaulted him, caused a charge of assault and battery on a police officer to be brought and prosecuted against James Cowen.
24. Lima and Landry falsely and maliciously claimed that John Cowen had menaced and assaulted Lima and caused charges of assault and battery on a police officer, disorderly conduct, and resisting arrest to be brought and prosecuted against John Cowen.
25. At the instance of Lima and Landry Luke Cowen was arrested and charged with domestic assault and battery, assault and battery on a police officer and resisting arrest.
26. On September 12, 2016, the said criminal charge against James Cowen was dismissed at the request of the Commonwealth.
27. The charges against John Cowen and Luke Cowen were dismissed on condition of their agreements to pretrial probation. Their motions to vacate those dispositions are pending before the Milford District Court.
